2022 RED ANGUS MAGAZINE

The Red Angus magazine has become a flagship publication and promotion tool for our breed since we produced our first edition back in 2001. With the great support from you the members we can take pride in the fact that the wider industry considers the Red Angus magazine one of the better breed society annual publications available.

On the attached advertising price page, you will find some new exciting advertising deals that will help to further promote your business throughout Australia and the world.

The magazine is the major promotion tool we produce each year and every enquiry for the breed is sent a magazine. This is your opportunity to be involved. The magazine will focus again on commercial Red Angus success as well as the success of the breed in the last twelve months.

If there was ever a time to consider advertising, you own a Red Angus stud the time is now! The unprecedented demand and success of the breed in the last few years has seen enquiry and sales at a level the breed has never seen before. It is far easier to keep momentum than to generate it so jump on board and make this annual the best ever.

The 2022 edition will be printed in a Portrait format.

Due to printing deadlines, the booking and print ready deadlines must be adhered to.
